

Successful Revision Tips

When you open your exam paper, we want you to feel that you are giving yourself the best possible chance.

Here are our revision tips to help you prepare:

- Past papers. Testing yourself with past papers is one of the best ways to revise. With searches on your examination boards websites, you can also look at mark schemes and examiners' reports.

- Make a revision plan. This is a great way to start. Keep the sessions in your revision plan to a maximum of 30 minutes each and vary the topics - don't keep repeating the ones you already know. Limit yourself to seven hours max of revision a day.

- Know yourself. Put together revision activities that work for you, whether that's flash cards, mind maps, revision apps, or watching videos. But keep it active!

- Look after yourself. Eat well, get enough sleep, take regular breaks and get some exercise whenever you can. Breathing exercises and meditation can help you to stay calm and focus.

- Revision zone. A quiet, uncluttered area is the ideal place to revise, but mix it up by trying different places, such as a library, kitchen table or the park.

- Get help. Get parents or other family members to test you on what you have learnt. Set up a revision group with friends and ask your teacher to give you feedback.
